GEORGE R.

GEORGE by the Grace of God of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. To all to whom these Presents shall or may appertain, Greeting. Whereas by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of Our Reign for raising a Sum not exceeding Five Hundred Thousand Pounds, by charging Annuities at the Rate of Five Pounds per Cent. per Ann. upon the Civil List Revenues till redeemed by the Crown, It is (amongst other things) Provided and Enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for Us at any time, upon one Quarter of a Year's Notice to be given under Our Royal Sign Manual, and affixed upon the Royal Exchange in London, to redeem the said Annuities, and every of them: Now We in pursuance of the Power given to Us as aforesaid, do signify and declare, (in as much as Money sufficient will be reserved in the Receipt of Our Exchequer at Michaelmas next 1725, to pay to the then Proprietors of the said Annuities, the Consideration or Purchase-Money which was originally paid for the same, and all Arrearages of the said Annuities to that Quarterly Day of Payment,) That the said Annuities and every of them shall stand and be taken to be redeemed from and after that Day, and accordingly that the said Annuities shall from thenceforth cease and determine, and the Revenues on which the same are charged shall be then after discharged off, from, and against the same, according to the Directions of the said Act. Given at our Court at St. James's the Sixth Day of May 1725, in the Eleventh Year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

R. Walpole.
Geo. Baillie.
Geo. Dodington.

Whitehall, May 21.

The following Address having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Portland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Council and Assembly of the Island of Jamaica.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Council and Assembly of this your Island of Jamaica, beg Leave to approach your sacred Person with Hearts truly sensible of your constant Care and tender Concern for the Safety and Welfare of this Island, and to render our most unfeigned Thanks for your most gracious Condescention in the Continuance of our Laws, which expired on the 1st Day of October last.

It is with infinite Satisfaction we reflect on your Majesty's extensive Goodness, while we in this our remote Situation enjoy so large a Measure of its happy Influence; and it is an inexpressible Comfort under the Misfortune of our Distance from your Majesty's Throne, that we have daily Occasions to contemplate the Virtues of your Royal Person in the prudent and mild Administration of your Majesty's Government here, and in the frequent Instances we receive of your Majesty's most tender Regard.

As your Majesty's known Clemency lays us under the strongest Obligations of Duty, so we beg Leave to renew our Assurances to your most Sacred Majesty, that we shall not fail on our Parts in any Testimony that may evidence our steady Attachment to your Majesty's Government as well in your own Person as in the Royal Succession of your Illustrious House, but behave ourselves on all Occasions with such Zeal and Loyalty as becomes a grateful People to the most indulgent and best of Kings.

Pass'd the Council the 23d of January, 1724.
Jos. Maxwell, Cl. Concil.
Pass'd the Assembly the 23d of January, 1724.
